(By Havas Agency.)

Paris, Jan. 11th—The loan of eight hundred and seventy millions of francs proposed by M. Rouvier, the Finance Minister, has met with general acceptance, having been subscribed seventeen times over.

Paris, Jan. 12th.—Baron Haussmann, who was Prefect of the Seine under the Third Napoleon, diedto-day at the age of 82.

THE REVOLUTION IN CHILE.

A DEAD-LOCK.

Santiago, Jan. 12.—The army has remained staunch to the President who has taken command; his first act on being informed of the revolt of the navy was to declare a state of siege throughout the country; his second was to offer a heavy reward to the crews of any ship which might surrender to him; he next forbade the issue of any newspaper or other publication, placing a picket at every printing-office to see that this order was implicitly obeyed. He then busied himself in raising fresh troops and proceeded to place the old regiments in a greater state of efficiency, besides promising an increase of 50 per cent. in the pay of all ranks.

Up to the present, the army and navy have not come into actual collision; there appears to be a dead-lock, and the issue is enveloped in uncertainty.

Montevideo, 12th—The latest about the new Ministry comes from Rio, where the Jornal do Comercio publishes a slashing article on Uruguayan politics and finances, attacking President Herrera and saying many bitter things.

More animation on the Bolsa to-day.

The Apolo left this evening for Buenos Aires.

THE AMERICAN PROTEST.

The crisis "grows": exchange is falling, gold rising, stocks almost without quotation, and taxes the most exorbitant are created. In the midst of these alarms comes the news that the Washington Government has ordered its representative here to lodge a formal protest against the new Lopez taxes on foreign capital and foreign companies. Strange it is that the first to protest against these most unjust taxes should be our great prototype, the United States; but in such matters the Americans never stand any nonsense; and the same spirit that flung the tea-boxes into Boston Harbour rather than pay the English tax lives in the American people and throws the Stars and Stripes over the American Insurance Offices in this city.

It is most improbable that the Washington Government, in ordering this protest, could have fallen into any error as to the reading of the treaty, and our readers may rest assured that similar protests from the European Governments will very soon follow. Thus Dr. Lopez, who has succeeded in his short term of office in putting up gold never as before known in this country, and in posing the private banks and insurance companies against his government, has at last succeeded in plunging the country into a diplomatic imbroglio which may result in another exile and another St. Helena.

THE ARGENTINE BRITISH COMMITTEE.

PROPERTIES WITHOUT OWNERS.

London, Dec. 5th.

You will see in the Times of to-day the report of Lord Rothschild and his colleagues on the best method to aid Argentina in her present troubles. It is hardly necessary for me to comment upon it, since it resumes itself in a few words:

1st. Argentina is now unable either to pay or borrow. But for the fall of Barings she might have gone on perhaps a year longer.

2nd. It is considered that a Moratorio of 3 years, being precisely the same term as that contained in the Bank's guarantee for Barings, is indispensable for the reconstruction of Argentine finances.

3rd. The arrangement of the Siamese Twins is thus carried out, and as the two guarantees will terminate simultaneously it will be the interest of all parties to improve Argentine finances in the interval.

4th—The coupons for the next 3 years are to be funded in the form of a new loan, nominally 11 or 12 millions sterling, and these coupons are to be secured on the Custom House of Buenos Ayres.

5th—No money is to be advanced to the Argentine Government in any form, and the Government and Congress are to be required to give a solemn pledge not to borrow for 3 years, nor to emit paper money.

6th—The Government is moreover requested to sign an engagement to burn 15 millions yearly of the present notes until the gold premium fall to 50 per cent.

7th—The Bateman Legacy loan is to be cancelled on the terms already stipulated between Barings and the Government.

You may be quite certain that in this arrangement Dr. Plaza got the best terms that any man could get under the circumstances, and if the Government and Congress be wise they will at once accede to it. But there is a rumour in London that the terms are ill-received at Buenos Ayres. It is impossible to know how far this rumour may be correct, but the result would inevitably be a suspension of the debt, unless Congress were to order another large issue of shinplasters and thus again postpone the inevitable by adding to the depreciation and distress at present prevailing.

The committee add that they have specially excluded Cedulas, Buenos Ayres loans and all the up-country and municipal obligations as outside the scope of their deliberations. This is to ignore the resolution recently taken by the Argentine Government to make itself responsible for all provincial loans. The philanthropic intentions of Lord Rothschild's committee, as you may imagine, have less in view the reconstruction of Argentine finance than the hope of moving off on the shoulders of the public the immense pile of Argentine stocks in Baring's safe either before or at the termination of the 3 years' guarantee. If these bonds were sold by auction they would realize so little that the Bank of England and its guaranteeing colleagues would have to face the probability of a heavy loss, but at the end of three years, or even sooner, who can say that Argentina may not be in a flourishing way and the bonds so far improved as to be saleable at a good profit to the Barings' estate? The French and German delegates at the committee refused to join in the arrangement and have left London. The committee, in my opinion, err seriously on one point, namely in supposing that the gold premium will fall to a premium of fifty per cent. The youngest child in Buenos Aires will hardly live to see that day, unless a loan can be made some time to redeem the currency, which is by no means impossible.

A few days ago I received a letter from a priest in Drogheda, written on behalf of a man named Markey, seeking information as regards the property left in Buenos Ayres by his cousin, Mr. Meehan, who is represented to have made a large fortune and bequeathed it to Markey. During my 30 years' knowledge of Argentina I never heard of Mr Meehan, and I knew at least by name all the Irish residents, and especially those who had made large fortunes, all subscribers to the STANDARD. Markey states that Mr Meehan was 40 years in Buenos Ayres, and it is very strange that I should never have heard of him. I may add that Markey also applied to Father John Cullen, who was many years in Buenos Ayres, but neither had he ever heard of him. I looked for the name in vain in the Handbook Directory: no Meehan is recorded in Buenos Ayres, Santa Fe, Uruguay or elsewhere. Perhaps this letter may evoke some news of the deceased, if there ever existed such a person, in which case I beg you will forward a paper containing the information to Rev. John Cullen, 91 Ranelagh Road, Dublin, who will at once convey it to Markey.

Meantime, in view of the facts stated I cannot but regard Mr Meehan's fortune as mythical, and perhaps Markey has himself doubts on the subject, or else why does he not go out to claim it, instead of writing to a priest in Drogheda? This is not the first time that I have heard of similar "castles in Spain;" many people in Ireland will tell you of relatives who died at Buenos Ayres, leaving large fortunes, of which no information can be had.

On the other hand there can be no doubt that many fortunes of Irishmen have disappeared because the legal machinery is imperfect. If the books of the Banco de la Provincia could be overhauled you would doubtless find many unclosed accounts, unclaimed balances, standing to the names of British subjects, whose bones have long since mouldered into dust. The late Father Fahey, whose very name fills my room with an odour of good works as I write it, did his best to prevent this frequent loss of hard-earned savings by our countrymen. Since his death, 20 years ago, I know not how much may have lain unclaimed in the banks. The Government ought to cause a list of unclaimed balances after two years to be published in the STANDARD, which would soon lead to the discovery of the proper heirs.

This is, perhaps, a suitable occasion to advert to the case of the orphan children of Thomas Donoghue, estanciero at San Antonio; he left, I believe, about £30,000 sterling, but the money was clandestinely withdrawn from the Banco de Provincia and the orphans were left penniless. Perhaps, if the British Minister were to represent the case unofficially to General Roca, he would direct, at least, a portion, say one-half, of Donoghue's fortune to be refunded to the heirs. Possibly, compensation has been made to them in late years, but I know that in 1875 they were destitute.

In the United States, the authorities, whenever an Irishman dies leaving property, cause advertisements to be sent to the Dublin newspapers and also to those of his native place, calling for heirs, and the rights of the latter are protected. The system in Buenos Aires is very bad. I remember in 1885 the account of liquidation of an Irishman's property near Mercedes was brought under my notice: he died leaving twelve hundred sheep, the sale of which realised about fifteen hundred dollars, but the legal expenses absorbed fourteen hundred dollars, although the agent acting for the heirs charged only ten dollars for paper and postage as his own fee, giving his services gratis. So many Codes have been passed by Congress, that we might expect the Arencal of lawyers' fees and the procedure in testamentary matters would have been clearly laid down, to protect the heirs, but the case I mention shows that some humane Argentine, either in Congress or the Press, ought to take up the question and devise a remedy.

Our Mails.

London, Wednesday, Dec. 17.

The trial of Michael Eyraud and Gabrielle Bompard, who are accused of the murder of M. Guffé, a writ server, has commenced in Paris. The court was crowded with fashionable people, including ambassadors, diplomatists, actors, and actresses, some of whom paid very high prices for the privilege of witnessing the proceedings. The trial is expected to last four days.

Sitting Bull, the Sioux chief, and his son, Blackbird or Crowfoot, with other hostile Indians have been shot by the United States forces. They had been arrested by the Indian Police, when their followers rallied to the rescue, and in the conflict which ensued the old rebel and six or seven of his comrades were killed. Several of the police lost their lives. President Harrison, on hearing the news, expressed the hope that now the great disturbing element was out of the way a settlement might be reached without further bloodshed.

Two lively election fights occurred in connection with the Kilkenny contest yesterday. Mr. Parnell and his friends had arranged to address the farmers in the market-square at Ballinakill Fair, in support of Mr. Vincent Scully, but when they arrived upon the spot they found Mr. Davitt, and Dr. Tanner, on behalf of Sir J. Pope Hennessy, in possession, and addressing the electors. Opposition speechifying was continued for awhile, but at length the two factions came to hostilities, and shillelaghs and blackthorns were used with considerable effect. Mr. Davitt himself led his men across the square to the Parnellite quarters, receiving two or three ugly blows on the face, and having his hat torn to tatters. On leaving Ballinakill both parties drove to Castlecomer, where another scrimmage took place, and Mr. Parnell met with some personal violence, but not of a serious character.

Sir Frederick Milner, Conservative, has been elected for the Bassetlaw Divison of Nottinghamshire, by a majority of 728, receiving 4,381 votes, as against 3,653 recorded for Mr. J. W. Mellor, the Gladstonian Liberal candidate. The result involves no change in the relative position of parties, but the majority in the present instance is more than double that by which the late Conservative member was returned at the last contest in 1885.

Last evening Mr. J. A. Froude was entertained at a banquet by the Liberal Union Club, at the Criterion Restaurant. Sir Henry James, who presided, referred briefly to the result of the Bassetlaw election, and remarked that the present position of the Irish controversy amply vindicated the course taken by the Liberal Unionist party. Mr. Froude responded at considerable length to the toast of his health.

Counsel on both sides addressed the jury at the Central Criminal Court in the case of George Washington Butterfield, who is indicted for having libelled Mr Harry Marks. It is expected that the trial will be brought to a close to-day.

The Stock Markets opened firm, but gave way later, and closed dull. American and Canadian railways left off considerably lower. Mexican (Vera Cruz) Ordinary, after rising to 47½, relapsed to 43¾ on a reduction in the New York price for silver. English railways were offered. Consols declined ⅛ to ¼ per cent. A net sum of £110,006 in gold was sent into the Bank.

LONDON LETTER.

(Per Elbe.)

THE PARNELL CRISIS.

Dec. 1st, 8 p.m.

Neither tape nor extra-special nor the clamour of politicians around me enable me to say how matters stand. It is obvious that although two meetings have been held no decision had been come to amongst the Irish members up to a late hour this afternoon. All the particulars up to 1.30 p.m. I have already sent you by an earlier post. We know that Mr. Parnell sternly refuses to retire at the dictation of the majority of Irish members at the meeting held this afternoon. He relies upon the support of the Irish people in Ireland and America. From what we see that support at present is confined to the Clan na Gael and certain branches of the League in America and certain districts in Ireland. On the other haud, the Irish delegates in America, Mr Dillon, Mr O'Brien, Mr T. P. O'Connor, have sent a distinct message that much as the step pains them, if it be a question of sacrificing the cause of Home Rule or Mr. Parnell's leadership, they declare for the cause, and therefore join Mr Sexton, Mr Healy, Mr McCarthy and the principal members of the Irish party here. On the side of Mr Parnell are only the Redmonds, the Nolans, the Harringtons, Mr Kelly and a few others, which leads the Star to prognosticate that at the meeting this afternoon Mr Parnell will be dethroned by a majority of 30. That we have still to see. From what I hear from Irish gentlemen the defection of Mr. O'Brien is very unfortunate. He is the idol of the Irish parochial clergy, who of course have great influence. The very man who told me this will be amongst the most surprised at seeing Mr. O'Brien's signature to the message from the delegates. My informant believed in Mr. O'Brien's staunchness towards Parnell, and was inclined to think that the Catholic bishops would still support him politically, whilst condemning his social failings. Even in that my strongly catholic, intensely Home Rule and very talented friend is mistaken, for Archbishops Croke and Walsh have decidedly declared against the great Irish leader. In fact he is at this moment abandoned by the leaders of Irish opinion; but do not think Charles Stewart Parnell is utterly extinguished on that account. He may yet win. The rank and file of the Irish people who have no personal jealousies and ambitions to satisfy, no personal grudges and snubbings to pay off, no professional character or academical moral code to justify by deeds, will not be easily persuaded to withdraw their allegiance from "Misther Par-r-nell." Besides, we are in an acute stage of indignation fever here. A reaction will set in. Already Mr. Robert Buchanan, who hates [Mr. Stead more than he hates adultery, has raised his voice in Mr. Parnell's favour and, under the heading 'The journalist in Absolution,' writes to the Echo, launches out against the "Priest of Prurence," the "Priest of Espionage," the "Scapin of Politics," the "Mawworm of Morality," and bids Mr. Parnell "to stand like a rock, and refuse to be condemned by a divorce court, and defy the clamour of penny-a-lining Pharisees," etc. etc. Mr. Buchanan is, of course, of the new school of morals, which looks upon Mr. Gladstone's notions as old-fashioned bigotry, and inclines to Zolaism in that philosophic sense in which cultured people view M. Zola's crusade against superstitious views of our physical life. Mr. Buchanan is only a litterateur. Politicians have to deal with naturalism as it exists, whatever the possibilities may be of ultimately refining human nature by an ethics of free drainage.

According to the ethics that rule Mr. Parnell has offended the prejudices of a vast middle class party which is not necessarily pharisaic because it contains Pharisees. By his reticence—amounting to mendaciousness—he has offended a much larger number who are not pharisaic at all, and who would be glad to believe with Mr. Buchanan tha Mr. Parnell's reticence was a noble effort to save his partner in delinquency; and it is true that by standing, as it were, bare-headed and alone in the storm he has caused her to be forgotten. Finally, no casuistry can condone Mr. Parnall's "cussedness" in distorting the private confidences of Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Morley into treachery to the cause of Home Rule or of Ireland. That at least they cannot be accused of when sitting in the cold as a sacrifice to that cause, however much they may have erred in offering an Irish Secretaryship to Mr. Parnell or an Attorney-Generalship to Mr. Tim Healy. Mr. Parnell might have left the charge of "bribery" to the St. James's Gazette and the scum of a party terrified at a popular wave which Mr. Parnell might have victoriously bestridden in spite of his romantic episode, had he not by his "cussedness" broken it into a foam that for the moment—and I think only for a moment—obscures the direction of public opinion, and the trend of his own politica future.

The split in the Irish party is great and obvious, and will leave heart-burnings that will not be healed in this generation. The first fight will be over the money of the League—about £20,000—which is deposited in Paris and cannot be drawn except by Mr Parnell and one other colleague.

* * *

The trial of Mrs. Piercey is going on today. There was nothing in the evidence differing from what we have seen in previous enquiries.

* * *

You may perhaps remember Mr Vivian and the Hon. Stewart Erskine "Ed-props" of the Whirlwind. They have quarrelled. The remaining "Ed-prop," Mr Vivian, assures that no difference of opinion led to the separation, and he dispatches his friend Mr. Erskine in this characteristic style—"the Proprietor-Editor's friendship and sympathy continue to be extended to that young man." The Whirlwind in its last week's article on 'Where to Winter" recommends Dublin in the most flattering language. All people in Dublin it says are good looking, and their charming manners correspond to their appearance. "We see," it says," everywhere the repose and graceful leisure so foreign to the brutal chaffering Saxon, and which reminds one rather of the highbred Oriental than the "vulgar Western."

Mr. Vivian is, of course, a Cornishman, a Celt, as Mr. Robert Buchanan is, and it is curious to observe the rise of that old element, which is indeed the motive power of Home Rule.

* * *

In to-day's Times the Booth scheme is attacked by Mr Huxley as theorest and by Mr Loch as a practical man and administrator of the Charity Organisation Society.

Whatever General Booth's scheme may be worth, the people here will not stand the funds subscribed being secured only by the sanctity of Mr Booth, and as he has the impudence to suggest, the honour of his successors as heads of the Salvation Army

* * *

The Stock Exchange to-day is again slightly depressed, and Argentines and Uruguays have fallen a little. The Statist takes the B. A. STANDARD average of gold premium and presents the sad total of six millions sterling to be provided for annually by the Argentine nation, provinces, municipalities and cedulas combined. It calculates your exports and asks where is the money for the service of the debt to come from?

PARIS LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

29th Nov., 1890.

Cardinal Lavigerie must feel it more difficult to convert the Soudanese from Islamism than the royalists of the old school from monarchism. Since his Eminence has reiterated his political "credo," in favour of the acceptation of the present form of government as the "de facto" régime of France, he has been kept, not so much in hotas in boiling water. The Cardinal is able to take care of himself; he has an immense fund of fighting power in him, and can hit in a manner that his adversaries will remember. The adhesion of the Bishop of Annecy to his views is a beginning of the end.

Cardinal Lavigerie takes up two positions: the first, that monarchism being dead in France, the restoration of any sovereign is impossible—save by a miracle. Consecutive elections in France corroborate that truism. Next, that by the clergy rallying to the government of the country it may count upon more consideration than from an attitude of silent or of undisguised hostility. Ultimately this view will be ratified by events, for a large mass of public opinion—the majority in fact—are not inclined to abrogate the Concordat and convert 52,000 clergymen into open enemies, and deprived of resources. Owing no obligation to the State, the clergy would be free to formidably attack the existing constitution as free individuals. It will be many years before French opinion will be convinced to separate Church from State. What good then irritating the clergy by exceptional decrees and the wholesale laicisation of hospitals and hospices, where public grants have to replace charitable donations? It is always bad tact to strike when you are not strong enough to fight, or to enter on a campaign destined to failure in advance. If the Sacred College, in case the Pontifical Throne became vacant, decided to elect a foreigner to fill the vacancy, that foreigner would be Cardinal Lavigerie. He and M. Jules Ferry are the two most energetic celebrities in France. All moderate men are with the Cardinal, not only on account of his safe judgment and sound programme, but because he is a man of his time. The no-surrender monarchists are only wasting powder and shot in attacking the Cardinal; they have become "pagans suckled in a creed out-worn." The gods of their idolatry are fossils.

All attention seems to be momentarily concentrated on Dr. Koch's salvation lymph. He has sent two flacons of the pock to his friend and admirer, Surgeon Péan, of the Paris St. Louis Hospital. M. Péan is the most eminent surgeon in France, and the legends respecting the operations he has performed are legion. He is as dauntless as he is successful. He is 60 years of age, and was originally destined to be a farmer; he kicked, and was ultimately allowed to study medicine—what he loved. He is also a very skilful mechanic, and has invented a very large number of surgical instruments and medical appratuses. It is said, that he has a private smithy as had Louis XVI.—but this must be a Bob Sawyer joke. He had not Koch's lymph syringe five minutes in his hand when he detected its imperfections, and that evening he designed the ameliorations, and sent them to be executed.

Surgeon Pean has within the last few days inoculated several patients affected with tuberculosis in the joints as well as in the lungs. He has further operated in three very bad cases of lupus, of ten and five years standing. The results are so far reported to be satisfactory, and undoubted confidence is felt in the experiments. Two points are being specially studied; the interval that ought to elapse between the successive inoculations, and the dose to be administered, as determined by the intensity of the produced fever. Pean's report will be looked forward to by the Faculty with intense interest: it will be exhaustive, and will range over a wide field. Like Pasteur, he approves of Koch keeping his secret secret for some time, till a sufficient number of experiments, executed by authoritative professionals, can be collected and collated, and conclusions drawn, to be embodied in fixed instructions.

Since the report became known that Surgeon Pean was in possession of a cure for tuberculosis in its various forms and stages, and also for lupus, the St. Louis hospital has been besieged, and a rush made to be first for the treatment, as if it were a Pool of Bethesda. Indeed every ailment has its representative in the crowd of sufferers. In addition to the inhabitants of Paris, the afflicted from the Provinces are arriving. The belief is general, that with the wonderful lymph and Surgeon Pean's legendary ability, coughed away lungs and rotted away shin bones can be restored. And as fun must have its part, no matter what the ailment any persons may be suffering from, they are recommended to apply for admission to the St. Louis hospital. I am given to understand that all the doctors who are supplied with the lymph for experimental purposes are to prefer hospital patients; and if persons outside this class are treated, no fee is to be taken, but a donation demanded for the City Charity Fund.

M. Camille Pelletan, Mr. Clemenceau's first Lieutenant, is progressing by "leaps and bounds" to a foremost position as a financial reformer and authority. Much of the order that has been introduced into the recent budgets is due to his intelligence, but above all to his inflexibility to conceal nothing of the nation's liabilities from the nation. He has asked tax payers to fix in their memories, that since 1816 the National Debt of France has risen from 22 to 38½ fr. milliards; that is, about one milliard per one million of the population. The colossal total is some 14 fr. milliards in excess of that of the National debt of England, and next to double the National debt of Germany. Hence these countries have to pay less taxation proportionally in the form of interest on the Funded Debt. M. Camille Pellatan has defeated the Minister of Finance, Rouvier, who demanded 700 million frs. of a loan to take up that amount of Treasury Bills. The loan would not be extinguishing a debt, but merely postponing its redemption. Pelletan wants to put an end to all floating debts: to wipe out all liabilities—admitted or concealed—once for all, by borrowing the necessary millions to balance the national ledger, and then present a full and true account of revenue and expenditure every year to the nation.

The Italian elections have confirmed what judicious observers anticipated, that the Italians would stand by the triple alliance as the best security and the cheapest form of defending Italian unity. The triumph of Signor Crispi ought then to be viewed as a new guarantee for the peace of Europe.

Another deception for the French was the issue of the Parnell trial. They till the last concluded that Mr. Parnell would not appear in the light that he has. They are at sea as to the grave consequences resulting from the split in the English Liberal party. Pending that the situation clears up, they attack England's cant, hypocrisy, etc. This attitude applies to the anti-English press, and when told off, leaves very few papers indeed friendly to England. However, whether in England or America, the clergy will be on the side of the Ten Commandments.

By the death of the King of Holland Luxembourg is brought within the orbit of Vaterland. If, as is not unlikely, the Duchy almost cease to be a "lone star," and votes her union with the German Empire, France could hardly submit to the absorption, which would lead to the re-erection, on modern lines, of the celebrated fortress of the Luxembourg—a stronghold that would be simply impregnable, and an ever-threatening danger for the Gauls.

Respecting the girl-queen of Holland; the latest rumor is that a scion of the Emperor of Germany's own family will become her "Prince Albert" or "Prince Consort," husband, in due course.

The International Committee occupied with the financial situation of Argentina, has full European confidence; this, with the resolute spirit of the Argentines themselves to enforce economy right and left, will soon effect the desired end.

ROSARIO.

(From our own Correspondent.)

January 10th.

A London paper very plausibly says that the house of Baring is the primary cause of all our Argentine financial troubles, by the reckless manner in which they fostered Argentine extravagance. It is an enigma how such an experienced financial firm as Baring should not have smelt a rat as far back as the presidency of Roca and the declaration of the Curzo Legal. The epoch of dilapidation commenced with Roca; his most ardent friends must admit that. His successor, a much more vulgar man, hastened the dilapidation in a more impudent and unscrupulous manner. Yet, a whole decade of bacchanalian corruption supervened, and Baring Brothers quietly looked on and supplied the funds for the unholy purposes—that is, Baring and a confiding British public.

Where is the gold that Messrs. Baring poured into the country? Where are the productive works which ought to represent it? The gold vanished, and the banks that received it bankrupt; the National Bank only being propped up by an extraordinary issue of shinplasters. Not a dollar of the millions of European gold has gone into a public work that brings in a farthing of revenue to the Government. Do Messrs. Baring want to know what their friendship for the country amounted to? Financial chaos, and the enriching of a hundred or so of private individuals. The private deposits in the private banks represent the friendship of Messrs. Baring Brothers for the Argentine Republic!

Mr. Bowers financial scheme, founded on sound principles as it was, did not even inspire a discussion in the press or the expression of an opinion by any public man; and yet Mr. Bowers is an authority on finances. But his citing the United States and their action in reference to the great shinplaster question, was to say the least unfortunate. His countrymen were honest and patriotic; whereas, the latter virtue is only to be found in the breast of some antiquated antediluvians like General Mitre. As for the former virtue, do we ever tire from Bahia Blanca to Jujuy, to proclaim the astonishing fact that our finance Minister is an honest man? The Argentine people are bewildered with the fact, and are really puzzled what to do with a specimen of the "genus homo" that was thought to have disappeared from Argentine soil.

If the country Mr. Bowers addressed had been Anglo-Saxon, his scheme would have been debated and probably accepted. The idea of exchanging gold bank notes payable in 1900, for our present shinplasters is worthy of special study. Only, I would observe, it seems to me utterly impossible to raise our immense Atlas of emission to par. But there would be no harm in trying an experiment on a smaller and safer scale. Let the Government offer a new dollar bank note, redeemable in five years in gold, for every two of the present shinplasters. It may be that the people would accept this operation. The gold notes would accept this operation. The gold notes would gradually replace the present ones (which, of course, should be burnt). If success should attend the first steps of this scheme, other favorable combinations might follow. It would do no harm to try the experiment.

We are a very queer people. The sanitary works of Rosario commenced the works with a contract from the Municipality and a concession approved by the Government. How many gallons of palm oil were expended, we have nothing to do with. English concessionaires are usually very good judges of human nature, and even when that nature be Argentine. The works were carried on with characteristic British energy, and the principal sections approved of by the Municipality of unsavory memories. When these gentlemen were kicked out, the new 'municipales,' egged on by property holders, who want to stove off the necessary expense of installation and payment of the tax, opened up the question with an infinite deal of 'bombo,' and have refused to accept the works! 'Poco cosa!' The company has expended millions in these works, and now the Corporation says with the utmost sang froid: "We don't want them; you can take them back to England." This is a hint to Dr. Plaza; could he not settle the Bateman Legacy in the same manner? I repeat we are a queer people.

Our "active" Governor has changed the hour of his "siesta" from 2 to 4 p.m. to from 10 and to 6 p.m., "en atencion" of the accumulation of business. He has not been able to come to an arrangement with the debtors of the Provincial Bank to pay an amortization of five cents on every hundred dollars, payable quarterly. The debtors complain that this is extortionate on the part of the Government.

"I know a bank whereon the wild moss grows
Where all the clerks and manager serenely doze."

I would in a kindly spirit advise your correspondent who signs "One who has been swindled," as he appears to be a little confused as regards the orthography of the Spanish language, that there are certain epithets which he freely uses that are not to be pronounced to ears polite. What was the proof reader of the STANDARD about that he admitted such a letter to its purist columns? As for the data about the price of wheat, it is ignorant bosh, and tends to discredit your paper. From Rosario to Rafaela, bona fide purchasers are paying from seven dollars to seven thirty per 100 kilos. Large exporting houses are paying eight dollars per 100 kilos delivered in Rosario. This is about the rate of 14 dollars the fanega of 15 arrobas. In Entre Rios the market opened at 13 dollars. You should be careful and not publish the vagaries of irresponsible correspondents.

"Under which king, Bezonian? Speak or die".

But you won't speak, and no one ever knows what political side the STANDARD takes. Are you Mitrista? Are you Roquista? Are you Rochista? Are you Lopista? Not a word. Well, I can and will tell you what I am, if it interests any one. I am Rochista; I am for the man who, like Alexander, created a city in "forty minutes", the time occupied by Puck to "put a girdle round about the earth". As for General Mitre, he is too great and too good a man to be elected President. It is not a syndicate of Civicos who can do it. Do you think the syndicate of Messrs. Roca, Juarez Celman, Marco Juarez, Jose Galvez, Col. Ortega, "et id genus omnes" will allow it? As for Dr. Alem and his lambs, they will all disperse at the sound of the first popgun. Oh, how well Gen. Roca knows it!

Our Municipality has been re-organized by the Government. There were two gentlemen in the former who were too dangerously independent for Dr Cafferata, so they were turned out. The same phenomenon will occur in the National Cabinet. We shall see what we shall see.

Railway Items.

Engineer R. R. Pealer has concluded the entire plans of General Osborn's proposed railway from Paraguay to Bolivia. This concession was granted to the General by the Paraguayan Government three years ago, and the contract was registered exactly one year ago. The works were begun last May. According to Mr Pealer's plans the length of the line will be 1354 kilometres, including branches to Puerto Olimpo, Villa Concepcion, Rosario de Paraguay, and Villa Hayes. The undertaking is a large and important one.

Anent the question of Railway Drivers' Wages about which we have lately published some correspondence, we have received a letter from "Railway Employé" who wishes us to point out to "a Workman" that his real contention was that drivers on other lines were receiving 100 per cent more than those on the Northern. We scarcely deemed it necessary to explain that if A receives 50 per cent less than B, the latter gets 100 per cent more than A.

The Primer Entre Riano—the smallest railway concern in the country—netted 886.40 dollars last month. The gross returns were 2,087 dollars. The kilometrage was 3,447. This little railway never shows a loss and thus sets a good example to larger concerns.

The report of the Directors of the Bahia Blanca and North Western Railway Co., made up to the 30th June, states:—

The statement of the Company's accounts shows the position of the capital account and the amount of payments that have been made to the contractors for land, construction, materials, equipment, &c. Under the terms of the concession, and as provided for by the construction contract, the line is to be completed by the 11th April, 1895. The chief engineer's report details the progress of the works during the first year of construction. Messrs. Turquand, Youngs, Weise, Bishop and Clarke, who were appointed auditors by the Board in the first instance, retire and offer themselves for re-appointment.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The opening of the work-a-day week yesterday was unpropitious. The gold eagle soared; there was an absurd and flatly-contradicted rumour of "curzo forzoso" in the air: there was little news from Chile, no news from London, and our shade of evening contemporary the Defensa made some tremendous revelations that caused the public hair to stand as straight and stiff as an iron railing. Taken in every sense, yesterday was a hot day.

Our sporting readers are reminded that the entries for the Hurlingham races will close on 15th inst.

The fine Argentine corvette, La Argentina, about the safety of which some fears were beginning to prevail, has turned up in the luckiest port in the Republic. We had a telegram from San Blas yesterday announcing her arrival there on Saturday; and Mr and Mrs Buckland had the pleasure of entertaining her gallant commander and his officers.

It is interesting to compare the statistics of the Jockey Club entries for 1891 with those of 1890. Although the new entries necessarily come out unfavourably contrasted with last year's, yet they are not as small as was expected in view of the general crisis. In a few instances, indeed, there is an actual increase; thus the Premio Kemmis has 29 against 28 last year, the Premio Progreso 53 against 41, the Premio Produccion Nacional 61 against 41 and the Premio Casey 53 against 27, whilst the Premio Competencia has 82 entries in each year. The falling off is principally in the races for imported horses such as the Premio Europa with 47 against 92 and the Premio Ultramar with 38 against 78. The Gold Cup only suffers by one entry, but the decrease in the Gran Nacional, the Argentine Derby, actually amounts to 41. In the Premio Congreso the difference is larger still, amounting to one half, the figures being 52 to 105. Still, on the whole, the entries do not pan out badly, and give a better promise of a good year than the most sanguine optimist would have dared to prophecy.

The Union Civica Convention in Rosario will turn that veritable town inside out with politics, eloquence and hospitality. It will meet on Thursday, and all the big-wigs of the party in this city leave by to-night's train for the scene of action.

Imitating enfeebled and played-out Europe again. The War Minister has decided to have "autumn manœuvres" at San Nicolas in March or April. It is a good thing to keep the army up to the mark; and, we suppose, will not cost very much extra.

The general opinion about the row in Chile is that Balmaceda must be holding his own, or the telegraph line would have been re-opened ere this. Liberty will shriek if Cong

THE DIPPING SEASON.
Under the above heading, the following appears in a recent exchange:—
"Speaking of Dips themselves, perhaps the most significant feature in their "History is the way that the Old fashioned have been superseded by the more "Modern and Scientific preparations. As Tobacco gave place to the various "Fluids" "and these again to the "Powders" so we find to-day these latter retiring before the "new Paste Dips. Of the many recent experiments we have witnessed in England and "the Colonies, the most successful were with an Arsenical Paste, manufactured by "Tomlinson and Hayward, of Lincoln, a firm that has always been noted for keeping "abreast of the times."
"The advantages of the Paste over the "Powders" are many:—
"It does not make the wool dry and harsh, but leaves it soft and silky, giving a "healthy sweet smell to the sheep. Being, so to speak, already mixed, it is easier to "prepare there, being no waste nor loose "Powders," to fly about.
"As it is prepared with Carbolic it is lighter than the "Powders" and does not "so readily settle to the bottom, and for the same reason it is not injurious to the "hands. It goes in less space and is a more concentrated form than the "Powders," "thus effecting an economy in transport and labour. It costs less, and will mix with "any kind of water. In a word it is the "Powders," cleared of their many inherent "defects, with their curative properties and good qualities preserved and increased. "Until the manufacturers make some better discovery

The week opens with a paralysed market, and it seems that there is very little prospect of any change for the better, at all events until the financial and political situations are more clearly defined. The outlook is thus far from pleasant. Politics, to say the least, look extremely menacing, and the state of affairs in Entre-Rios and Mendoza excites great apprehensions amongst those who study the varying fortunes of the various candidates. In addition to this it is thought that the approaching great Union Civica meeting in Rosario will give rise to further complications, and with politics thus so heavily charged and no further news about the loan, it is not surprising that exchange should be low and gold high. The market is, therefore, going from bad to worse. Every day that passes confirms this conviction, and what with intolerable taxation, an empty Treasury and a feverish agitation in politics, it is quite natural that a rise in gold should reflect accentuated distrust in the situation generally. Gold rose to-day to 340, an ominous figure, declined to 336, and then stiffening again to 337.50, closed at this rate. Sovereigns were in demand at 340.50. Stocks were, without exception, flat and dull.

The following is a summary of operations effected this afternoon during the first ring:—

Although advices from Europe announce a fall of 10 cents in Argentine wool prices in some of the manufacturing districts, prices in the market here keep very firm, due to the stiffness in gold and conviction that soon European cables will shew a change for the better again. It is said that several importing houses have given up this business as no longer practicable and taken to exporting wool and wheat.

As a sample of what some firms in this city pay the Custom House for dues it is reported that Messrs. Gandolfi and Moss paid during December the sum of 553,164 dollars and during the year 1890 $1,730,427.

In the exchange market there is increased depression, and the rates dropped heavily. Minister Lopez should use his great influence to get the National and Provincial Banks to draw exchange on London and Paris, as bills are in great demand. Exchange was passed to-day at 14d. on London ann at 1.47 and 1.46 fcs. on Paris, rates unknown in these countries before Minister Lopez came into office.

It was authoritatively stated on 'Change this morning that the American Charge d'Affaires, in obedience to telegrams from Washington, presented to-day a formal protest to the Minister of Foreign Affairs against the Lopez taxes on foreign insurance companies. This is a very serious business, and to-morrow we may have similar news from Downing Street.

We hear that all the large holders of Provincial Cedulas have sent in their lists of coupons for collection, which shews that there is no conversion in those quarters.

It may interest the market to know that the telegram received from London by Dr. Lopez, Minister of Hacienda, respecting the proposal to increase the 7 o|o tax on bank profits to 10 o|o, instead of charging 2 o|o on deposits, did not come from a London banker, but from Dr. Plaza, the Argentine Commissioner in London; and with much pleasure we state that in the Senate there is such strong opposition to the tax that in all probability it will be thrown out.

One of our Italian colleagues publishes to-day a paragraph that may entail a run on the Provincial Bank. Such a propaganda must be necessarily deprecated, but it shows the effect of Minister Lopez's absurd taxation policy. A run on the Provincial Bank could not last very long, as the resources of the Bank are well known; but let it be remembered that nobody can foresee the proportions of such a panic, which might affect all the other banks in the market. It is well to be prudent in these times.

The Argentine man-of-war Argentina, with the Naval Cadets aboard, anchored in San Blas harbour on Saturday. Her Commander, Captain Martin Rivadavia, telegraphed yesterday to the Minister of War and Marine, announcing all well on board. Captain Rivadavia, it will be remembered, surveyed and buoyed San Blas in 1882-1884.

Neither Senators nor Deputies met to-day. The financial committee of the Senate is still hard at work on the financial bills and will report to-morrow. It is understood that the bills will meet with fierce opposition. The people will bless the Senators for ever and a day if they throw out the bills bag and baggage.

It is stated that the 25 millions allotted for loans to the National Mortgage Bank will be issued to the many applicants before that bank. If this be true, the gold premium will make another skyward spurt. Property-holders are confident that the whole issue of 25 millions will be granted.

The rates given at the head of these columns are the official ones, the drawing rates of the private banks being as follows:—

London and River Plate Bank—
London, 14¼d.
Paris, 1.48 fcs.
Germany, conventional
English Bank of the River Plate—
London, 14¼d.
Italy, 1.50
Germany, 1.19 marks
Banco Carabassa y Cia—
Paris, 1.47 fcs.
Banco de Italia y Rio de la Plata—
London, 14¼d.
Paris, 1.48 fcs.
Italy, 1.49 fcs.
Germany, 1.20 marks
Banco Inglés del Rio de Janeiro, Ld—
London, 14¼d.
Paris, 1.49 fcs.
Germany, 1.20½ marks
Italy, 1.51

Sovereigns were in brisk demand to-day and commanded a slight premium. In the morning 340.50 was quoted, but a gold rate of 342 was asked in the afternoon.

In spite of the Ministerial decrees which fix all exchange operations in paper rates, the Minister of Finance will regret to hear that the bulk of exchange in the market is done on the old orthodox gold basis. The commercial community have given the Minister's paper rate a fair trial, but it does not work with fluctuations such as those we have witnessed for the last three weeks. Fluctuations reduced exchange to a kind of lottery business, far worse and more aggravating than the gold speculation that once flourished in the hall.

The poor people are clamouring against the extortionate charges levied by grocers in anticipation of the sanction of the new taxation bills. Sugar, we hear, is now sold retail in the "almacenes" at 85 cents per kilo. This is simply scandalous, as the imposition affects an article of prime necessity: and to think that we are "protecting" fifty-two sugar factories in Tucuman, Santiago, Chaco, Misiones, and Salta. The day is very near when people will be asked to pay one dollar per kilo of sugar: we think that in no other civilized part of the globe is sugar quoted at such famine prices as in this country to-day, thanks to insane protection and taxation.

Passengers arrived per s.s. Leibnitz:—Messrs Wm McNeill, David Russell, H B Chapman, Barnard Trunninger, Robert Gibson. Steerage: Lucien Grember, Fdk Pratt, Francis C Hardy, Chas A Stretton, Robert W Lange, John Jones.

At the second hour business was again of the bagatelle order, though gold took another upward spurt to 342, closing with buyers at 341. Naturally, exchange was not spoken of, and brokers were busy consulting their tables to see what the rates would come out at. It was said, however, that the London Bank was drawing at 1.40 and 1.46 francs. The great rise in gold was naturally the topic of conversation at the second hour, and it was said by some that the Government were buying gold to make a payment on the 15th inst. for account of the Port Works. Other parties pointed out that buyers were general, so that nothing definite was known on this head. As for stocks, beyond a small business in Catalinas, nothing was done, and it is noted that brokers, instead of looking for orders, which is certainly hopeless work in those times, now operate for their own account on the 'multa' system, which is simply a mild way of gambling. Cedulas, National Bank shares and Constructors were all neglected.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks during the second ring:—

Messrs. G. Kelsey and Co. sold to-day at the Constitucion market 26,000 kilos of wool at 10.50 m/n and 11.50 m/n per ten kilos. Also 40,000 kilos of Entre Rios wool at reserved price.

There will be another meeting of Cedula holders at the National Theatre on Wednesday at four p.m., when the report of the Committee appointed at the first meeting will be presented.

Nearly all the private Banks and most of the large houses in which Cedulas are deposited have refrained from collecting the coupons in consequence of the 20 per cent tax thereon; it appears that they await definite instructions from the holders of the Cedulas.

The Argentine News (Rosario), speaking of Melincué, says:—

"Cattle and sheep have improved wonderfully in condition during the last few weeks, and there is now quite an abundance of fat animals for the butcher. The harvest in these colonies has been fairly up to the average, and most of the wheat is now stacked, owing to the abundance of labour. Of maize there is very little, and what there is will be devohred by the 'langosta saltoña," which swarms everywhere, but is as yet hardly old enough to do much damage. It is curious to remember that at this date last year these camps were covered with 'cardo' six feet high, with a capability of maintaining 5000 head of cattle per league, and this year a 'tropilla' of horses would starve on it. The wool season is good, and most of the farmers have sold off at 8 m/n per ten kilos."

In a late number of Money we find the following:—

"The amount of English capital, and the large number of enterprising and energetic Englishmen engaged in Argentine industries, must tell on the future of the country. Nearly all the railways constructed, or in course of construction, belong to Englishmen; so do the tramways. A large number of the estancias belong to wealthy English, Irish, and Scotch men. The sugar factories, frozen meat establishments, gas companies and breweries are British property. There are four English banks paying excellent dividends, even in this time of stress. With all these elements of commercial and industrial prosperity, added to unrivalled fields for their exercise, it is morally certain that only time and financial capacity of even average quality are needed to bring the country right again."

The following business was effected in the Montevidean "Centro Comercial" on Saturday:—

We take the following from the Montevideo Times:—

"The house Avenida Rondeau 113 has been sold to Sr. Corbacho for 11,600 dollars.

"It is said that the statutes have been presented for approval of the Banco Americano del Uruguay, which is to be established here with North American capital. We cannot say who are the promoters.

"No fresh notice having been issued respecting the extraordinary meeting of shareholders of the National Bank to approve the Government schemes for reorganization, we presume it will take place to-morrow as announced. We believe the Politeama Oriental is the locality selected.

"The National Bank has commenced paying the interest on the Central U. Railway Debt, 50th quarter, and the Higueritas Railway Debt, 28th quarter.

"The Apolo brought from Buenos Aires yesterday 250 dols. to A. Vera, 2000 to B. Tejada and 500 to Hardoy and Co.

"Shareholdere of the Banco Italo-Oriental are convoked to general meeting at 3.30 p.m. on the 26th inst., to receive the report and accounts for the past year and elect a Committee of Accounts.

"Six thousand arrobes of wool were sold in the Central Station and Feria yesterday at $3.60 and 3.70 special extra, 3.45 to 3.55 gold, 3.20 to 3.40 ordinary, 3 to 3.10 inferior."

The number of animals slaughtered in the "saladeros" of Montevideo to date is as follows:—

Oil as a Sea Smoother—A Dalziel's telegram from Halifax, Nova Scotia, dated 9th December, says: "The Red Cross Line s.s. Miranda has arrived here from St. John's after a fearful passage. She left St. John's for New York on Nov. 9th, while shere was a heavy wind blowing. She had to anchor off Bull's Bay. She left there on Sunday, but the gale increased to a hurricane. There was a panic on the Miranda among the passengers, and a number of them were injured. The seas washed over the ship, destroyed the bridges, and the water poured into the saloon and the second-class cabin. There was little hope of the vessel being able to weather the storm when the captain ordered 30 gallons of oil to be thrown overboard around the ship. The effect was magical. The immense seas passed harmlessly around the vessel, and this alone saved her from foundering."

Wolseley Sheep Shearing Machine Company, limited.

Cabaña del Rincon,

Estacion Pereira, 18th Sept. 1890.

Messrs. Agar Cross & Co.

Dear Sirs,

I have great pleasure in reporting favourably of your "Wolseley Sheep Shearing Machine." Up to date we have shorn upwards of 800 Lincoln Rams and Borregas, and find it quite up to our expectations. It is simple and easily handled, and in no way complicated or difficult to understand or work, and so far it has never been out of order. It shears the sheep beautifully: it does them quicker and considerably better than it is possible to get them done by hand, and saves the poor animal a great amount of abuse.

I have timed our Amateur Shearer here, and find he can shear upwards of eight in the hour. Consequently, I consider the Wolseley Machine one of the best patents I have yet seen, in proof of which I intend having some more put up at an early date.

Yours very truly,
WILLIAM RIDDICK.

Keating's Cough Lozenges.

"94, Commercial Road, Peckham, July 12, 1889.

"Dear Sir,—I am a poor hand at expressing my feelings on paper, but I should like to thank you, for your lozenges have done wonders for me in relieving my terrible cough, Since I had the operation of 'Tracheotomy' (the same as the late Emperor of Germany, and unlike him, thank God, I am still alive and getting on) well-performed at St. Bartholomew's Hospital for abduct, or paralysis of the vocal chords, no one could possibly have had a more violent cough; indeed it was so bad at times that it quite exhausted me. The mucus also, which was very copious and hard has been softened, and I have been able to get rid of it without difficulty,—I am, sirs, yours truly,

"Mr. T. Keating," "J. HILL.

Medical Note.

The above speaks for itself. From strict inquiry it appears that the benefit from using Keating's Cough Lozenges is understated. The operation was a specially severe one, and was performed by the specialist. Dr. H. T. Butlin, of St. Bartholomew's Hospital. Since the operation the only means of relief is the use of these Lozenges. So successful are they that one affords immediate benefit, although from the nature of the case the throat irritation is intense. Mr. Hill kindly allows any reference to be made to him.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's CHLORODYNE.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE

Advice to Invalids.—If you wish to obtain quiet refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by D. J. Collis Brown, (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE, and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation, and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5 1880. To J. T. Davenprt, Esq., 33, Great Russel Street, Bloomsbury, London. Dear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the widespread reputation this justly esteemed medecine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan; but all over the East. As a remedy for general utility, we must question wether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are so sorry to say, are now relegated to the mail's bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. we could multiply instances "ad infinitum" of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne.s Chlorodyne in Diarrhoea and Dysentery, Sapasms, Crampas, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative that have occuraed under our personal observation during many years, In Choleraic Diarrhoea, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's from a firm Conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a deliberate Breach of Faith on the part of the Chemist to prescribe and Patient alike. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes and Co., Members of he Pharm. Society of Great Britain. His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists

Caution.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr J Collis Browne, was, undoubtedly, the Inventor of Chlorodine; that the story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, which he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See The Times," July 13, 1864.
